BRIDAL CATALOGUE

FOR THE BRIDE

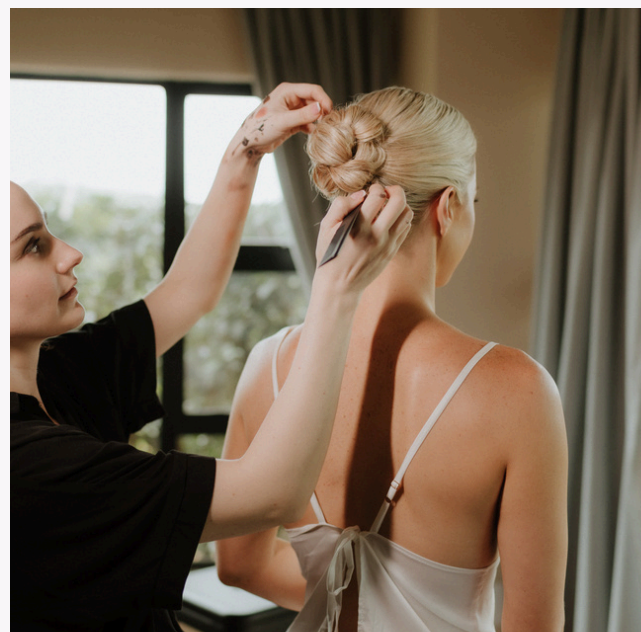

With 12 years of experience in the bridal industry, I bring more than just hair and makeup.

From the moment you book, I'm here with open communication - whether it's months ahead or the day before your wedding. I only take one bridal party per day, so you'll have my full attention (no rushing off to another booking), and I create a personalised schedule for your wedding morning so everything runs smoothly and stress-free. Your experience is designed to remove stress from your morning and replace it with clarity, structure, and ease, so you can stay present in one of the most important parts of your day.

I bring all the products, tools, and experience to take care of everyone - I've worked with all ages and skin tones, and my kit is prepped for every beautiful face in your crew. I'm here to celebrate with you, help you feel calm and confident, and make sure your bridal look is exactly what you've dreamed of. Your hair and makeup comes together with precision and care, focusing on longevity, a seamless finish, and techniques that hold beautifully in both real life and photography.

Nothing is rushed. Everything is intentional. My role is to ensure you feel supported, relaxed, and fully ready before you step into your dress. So if you're looking for someone who'll hype you up, handle the details, understand your vision and celebrate you from start to finish - you're in the right place.

THE PREVIEW EXPERIENCE

Your bridal preview is where everything comes together. This is a dedicated, in-depth session designed to refine and perfect your wedding day look. Your preview takes place in my cozy home studio, where we set aside dedicated time to refine every detail, so you can relax and sip on a mimosa while we bring your bridal hair and makeup dreams into reality.

We'll take our time working through your vision, discussing your Bridal Moodboard - dress, overall aesthetic, and how you want to feel on the day. From there, I'll create your personalised hair and makeup look that's built to photograph beautifully, while still feeling like you.

This is a collaborative appointment, allowing space for thoughtful tweaks so that nothing feels uncertain or rushed. I've got a bridal veil ready for you to try on, so you can truly see your full vision come to life. My goal is for you to leave knowing exactly what to expect on your wedding morning - no guesswork, no stress, and no surprises.

Including your bridal party not only enhances the overall look and feel of your morning, but also creates a relaxed, shared experience - allowing everyone to feel confident, looked after, and fully present in the moments leading up to your ceremony.

FROM THE ARTIST

Hi! I'm Bren, your bridal hype girl, beauty expert, and a calm amongst the chaos. If you're searching for an artist who truly understands weddings, I've got you. My love for beauty began in 2014, when I picked up my first makeup brush. I was 17 when I glammed my first bridal party, and I was hooked from the start.

Since then, I've gained experience in cosmetic retail, worked on ad campaigns, photoshoots, and collaborated with so many amazing clients - but weddings are my true love. There's something so special about being invited into someone's most important day and helping them feel like the most confident version of themselves.

My signature bridal hair and makeup lives somewhere between glam-land and the realm of understated, lived-in beauty. My brides want their makeup to feel special and luxurious, without feeling like they wouldn't recognise themselves in the mirror. I love blending the best of both worlds! Whether you prefer a barely-there, natural look or a full glam moment with an elegant updo, I'm here to match your vibe. No cookie-cutter styles - just something that feels beautifully YOU.

I firmly believe that makeup is for everyone, and I'm dedicated to celebrating what makes you feel incredible. I'll take the time to understand your style and vision, ensuring we create something timeless, comfortable, and absolutely stunning. On your special day, my aim is clear: to make you feel calm, cherished, and utterly gorgeous. You focus on soaking up the love, and I'll take care of the glam.

xo, Bren
